Junior Auxiliary of Ruston is a non-profit service organization consisting of women who desire to make a lasting difference in their communities by meeting the needs of its citizens, especially children.

Your talents are a donation to support our many projects. You are more than welcome to set-up a table with your merchandise for sale and keep all proceeds from sales of your own merchandise. We invite you to share your talents with our community! We appreciate your support in this event that gives back to the community.
